The Heritage Trail is a route around the Forest of Dean highlighting many of its industrial and archaeological heritage sites and attractions. There are opportunities to break your journey and visit the sites and attractions mentioned.

Take a walk or admire a view. Visit the sites and attractions mentioned.

Explore map CL4 with you.
It may help your visit to have the distance survey Heritage Trail to plan your days out in the Forest of Dean.

The Heritage Trail may be driven in a vehicle, but each car park and visitor centre has access by public footpath, limited parking on site.

Follow the road in Reader's Hill for the right and the Wisley Wood may be seen across by public footpath, limited parking on site.

English Heritage: The wood is being restored with the help of English Heritage. It was being cultivated for a paper mill, Combe in 1869.

Take a walk or admire a view.
Visit the sites and attractions mentioned.

The Heritage Trail is a route around the Forest of Dean highlighting many of its industrial and archaeological heritage sites and attractions. There are opportunities to break your journey and visit the sites and attractions mentioned.

Take a walk or admire a view. Visit the sites and attractions mentioned.

Explore map CL4 with you. It may help your visit to have the distance survey Heritage Trail to plan your days out in the Forest of Dean.

The Heritage Trail may be driven in a vehicle, but each car park and visitor centre has access by public footpath, limited parking on site.

Follow the road in Reader's Hill for the right and the Wisley Wood may be seen across by public footpath, limited parking on site.

English Heritage: The wood is being restored with the help of English Heritage. It was being cultivated for a paper mill, Combe in 1869.

Take a walk or admire a view. Visit the sites and attractions mentioned.

The Heritage Trail is a route around the Forest of Dean highlighting many of its industrial and archaeological heritage sites and attractions. There are opportunities to break your journey and visit the sites and attractions mentioned.

Take a walk or admire a view. Visit the sites and attractions mentioned.