DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS’ POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4 Directors’ general authority

Subject to the Articles and to the applicable provisions for the time being of the Companies Acts, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

5 Change of Company name

Without prejudice to the generality of Article 4, the directors may resolve in accordance with Article 12 to change the Company’s name.

6 Members’ reserve power

6.1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
6.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

7 Directors may delegate

7.1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles:

7.1.1 to such person or committee;

7.1.2 by such means (including by a power of attorney);

7.1.3 to such an extent;

7.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and

7.1.5 on such terms and conditions;

as they think fit.

7.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors’ powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

7.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

8 Committees

8.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

8.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them.

8.3 Where a provision of the Articles refers to the exercise of a power, authority or discretion by the directors and that power, authority or discretion has been delegated by the directors to a committee, the provision shall be construed as permitting the exercise of the power, authority or discretion by the committee.

9 Advisers

9.1 The directors shall have the right to appoint any member of the company as an adviser to the board of directors providing that no more than five such advisers are appointed at any one time.

9.2 Advisers so appointed shall have the right to attend all board, committee and general meetings and have the right to speak but shall not have any vote. It will be a requirement for such advisers to be members of the Company.

9.3 No directors of the Company may be appointed as such an adviser whilst they are a director of the Company.

9.4 The appointment of any such adviser may be terminated by the directors at any time.

9.5 All such advisers shall cease to be appointed at each annual general meeting, but shall then be eligible for re-appointment by the directors.
Administrative positions

10.1 The directors shall appoint from among themselves a treasurer and may appoint any person as minutes' secretary and may appoint any person to any other administrative position as they consider appropriate.

10.2 All of the holders of such administrative positions shall cease to hold office at the beginning of each annual general meeting, but shall then be eligible for re-election.

10.3 A holder of an administrative position shall cease to hold that office if they resign from that office by written notice to that effect or, in the case of a treasurer, they cease to be a director.

Appointment of Chairman

11.1 Any person who is willing to act as chairman and who is a director of the Company, may be appointed to the position of chairman:

11.1.1 by ordinary resolution, or

11.1.2 if there is no chairman appointed, by a decision of the directors.

11.3 If more than one person is appointed as a chairman then, the persons so appointed and present at the convening of any meeting of the directors or of the members shall agree who amongst them will act as chairman at that meeting and in the event of any dispute between those persons as to who is to act as chairman at that meeting the same shall be decided by lot. The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as the chairman of the meeting.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

Directors to take decisions collectively

12.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be taken as a majority decision at a meeting or as a directors' written resolution in accordance with Article 13 (Directors' written resolutions) or otherwise as a unanimous decision taken in accordance with Article 14 (Unanimous decisions).

12.2 Subject to the Articles, each director participating in a directors' meeting has one vote.

Directors' written resolutions

13.1 Any director may propose a directors' written resolution by giving notice in writing of the proposed resolution to each of the other directors.

13.2 If the company has appointed a company secretary, the company secretary must propose a directors' written resolution if a director so requests by giving notice in writing to each of the other directors.

13.3 Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must indicate:

13.3.1 the proposed resolution; and 13.3.2 the time by which it is proposed that the directors should adopt it.

A proposed directors’ written resolution is adopted when a majority of the non-conflicted directors have signed one or more copies of it, provided that those directors would have formed a quorum at a directors’ meeting were the resolution to have been proposed at such meeting.

Once a directors’ written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors’ meeting in accordance with the Articles.

Unanimous decisions

A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this Article 14 when all non-conflicted directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.

A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article 14 if the non-conflicted directors would not have formed a quorum at a directors’ meeting had the matter been proposed as a resolution at such a meeting.

Once a directors’ unanimous decision is taken in accordance with this Article 14 it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors’ meeting in accordance with the Articles.

Calling a directors’ meeting

Any director may call a directors’ meeting by giving notice of the meeting to each of the directors, whether or not he is absent from the United Kingdom, or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

Notice of any directors’ meeting must indicate:

15.2.1 its proposed date and time;

15.2.2 where it is to take place; and 15.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

Subject to Article 15.4, notice of a directors’ meeting must be given to each director but need not be in writing.

Notice of a directors’ meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company prior to or up to and including not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

Participation in directors’ meetings

Subject to the Articles, directors participate in a directors’ meeting, or part of a directors’ meeting, when:

16.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and 16.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

In determining whether directors are participating in a directors’ meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

20.6.1 disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the Company; or 20.6.2 use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

20.7 Where the directors authorise a Conflict they may provide, without limitation (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that the director:

20.7.1 is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict;

20.7.2 is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict;

20.7.3 may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at any future meeting of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict.

20.8 Where the directors authorise a Conflict:

20.8.1 the director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict;

20.8.2 the director will not infringe any duty he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of CA 2006 provided he acts in accordance with such terms, limits and/or conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of its authorisation.

20.9 A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he receives as director or other officer or employee of the Company’s subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested or which he derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of CA 2006.

20.10 Subject to the applicable provisions for the time being of the Companies Acts and to any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in accordance with Article 20.5.2, and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any interest of his in accordance with the Companies Acts, a director notwithstanding his office:

20.10.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested;

20.10.2 shall be counted as participating for voting and quorum purposes in any decision in connection with any proposed or existing transaction or arrangement with the Company, in which he is in any way directly or indirectly interested;

20.10.3 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director;

20.10.4 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any contract, transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested; and

20.10.5 shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he (or anyone connected with him (as defined in section 252 of CA 2006) derives from any such office or employment or from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit, nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of CA 2006.

20.11 For the purposes of this Article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors’ meeting or part of a directors’ meeting.

20.12 Subject to Article 20.13, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.

20.13 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

21 Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least seven years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.
Directors’ discretion to make further rules

Subject to the Articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT AND TERMINATION OF APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

Number of directors

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the maximum number of directors shall be eleven and the minimum number of directors shall be three.

Methods of appointing directors

Subject to Article 24.2, any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director:

24.1.1 by ordinary resolution, or

24.1.2 by a decision of the directors.

No person who is not a member shall in any circumstances be eligible to hold office as a director.

Any director appointed by a decision of the directors will resign on the convening of the next annual general meeting and will be eligible to stand for election at that annual general meeting.

Termination of director’s appointment

A person ceases to be a director as soon as:

25.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of CA 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;

25.1.2 that person ceases to be a member;

25.1.3 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

25.1.4 a composition is made with that person’s creditors generally in satisfaction of that person’s debt and the Company resolves that his office be vacated;

25.1.5 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

25.1.6 by reason of that person’s mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have; or 25.1.7 notification is received by the Company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms.

Following the resignations of any Directors appointed pursuant to Article 24.1.2 in accordance with Article 24.3, at each annual general meeting all but three of the directors shall retire and will be eligible to stand for election at that annual general meeting providing that no director shall be appointed for more than three consecutive years without retiring. Directors shall retire in the order in which they were appointed and the question of who is to retire between directors as appointed or reappointed on the same date shall be decided by agreement between those directors or, in the absence of such agreement, by lot.

26 Directors' expenses

26.1 The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors and the company secretary (if any) properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

26.1.1 meetings of directors or committees of directors, 26.1.2 general meetings, or 26.1.3 separate meetings of the holders of any debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

COMPANY SECRETARY

27 Appointment and removal of company secretary

The directors may appoint any person who is willing to act as the company secretary for such term, at such remuneration, and upon such conditions as they may think fit and from time to time remove such person and, if the directors so decide, appoint a replacement, in each case by a decision of the directors.

MEMBERS

BECOMING AND CEASING TO BE A MEMBER

28 Applications for membership

No person shall become a member of the Company unless:

28.1 that person has completed an application for membership in a form approved by the directors;
28.2 the Company has received payment in cleared funds of any membership subscription payable by the proposed member in respect of such application; and 28.3 the directors have approved the application.

29 Termination of membership

29.1 A member may withdraw from membership of the Company by giving seven days' notice to the Company in writing.

29.2 The directors may terminate the membership of any member provided that the member concerned shall have a right to be heard before any final decision is made.

29.3 Membership is not transferable.

29.4 Subject to Articles 29.1 and 29.2, a person’s membership terminates when that person dies or ceases to exist.

29.5 Subject to Article 30.3, an annual subscription for each Year shall be payable by the members of the Company and such subscriptions shall be determined from time to time by the Company. Membership subscriptions shall become due on admission to membership and shall thereafter become due at each Renewal Date in respect of the Year immediately following that Renewal Date.

29.6 Any member who fails to pay a membership subscription in respect of the Year immediately following a Renewal Date within two months of that Renewal Date shall cease to be a member of the Company provided always that the Directors shall in their absolute discretion be entitled to waive or vary the requirement for a member to pay an annual subscription in respect of any one Year.

30 Honorary membership

30.1 If so recommended by the Directors at the beginning of any annual general meeting, the Company may, by an ordinary resolution of the members at that meeting, honour any person or body who in their opinion has given distinguished service to the Company or who has otherwise distinguished themselves in promoting the objects of the Company, by conferring on them honorary membership of the Company.

30.2 Subject to Article 30.3, an Honorary Member shall rank pari passu with any other member of the Company provided that an Honorary Member shall not be entitled to vote on any resolution of the members of the Company or of the board of Directors of the Company relating to the appointment of an Honorary Member.

30.3 Honorary Members shall not be required to pay any membership subscription in respect of their membership of the Company pursuant to Article 29.5.

30.4 All Honorary Members shall cease to be Honorary Members at the beginning of each annual general meeting, but shall then be eligible for re-appointment as Honorary Members in accordance with Article 30.1.

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

31 Convening general meetings

31.1 The directors shall call an annual general meeting in each year (but excluding the year in which the Company is formed). The first annual general meeting shall be held not later than 18 months after the date of incorporation of the Company.

31.2 Not more than 15 months shall elapse between one annual general meeting and the next.

31.3 The business of each annual general meeting shall include:

31.3.1 a report by the chairman on the activities of the company;

31.3.2 consideration of the annual accounts of the company; and

31.3.3 the election or re-election of directors.

31.4 The directors may call general meetings and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of CA 2006, shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting in accordance with CA 2006. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors to call a general meeting, any director or the members requisitioning the meeting (or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of them all) may call a general meeting.

32 Notice of general meetings

32.1 General meetings (other than an adjourned meeting) shall be called by at least fourteen Clear Days’ notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote, being a majority who together represent not less than seventy five (75%) of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.

32.2 The notice shall specify the time, date and place of the meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted and the terms of any resolution to be proposed at it.

32.3 Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on members, the notice shall be given to all members and the directors for the time being of the Company.

32.4 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

33 Resolutions requiring special notice

33.1 If CA 2006 requires special notice to be given of a resolution, then the resolution will not be effective unless notice of the intention to propose it has been given to the Company at least twenty-eight Clear Days before the general meeting at which it is to be proposed.

33.2 Where practicable, the Company must give the members notice of the resolution in the same manner and at the same time as it gives notice of the general meeting at which it is to be proposed. Where that is not practicable, the Company must give the members at least fourteen Clear Days' before the relevant general meeting by advertisement in a newspaper with an appropriate circulation.

33.3 If, after notice to propose such a resolution has been given to the Company, a meeting is called for a date twenty-eight days or less after the notice has been given, the notice shall be deemed to have been properly given, even though it was not given within the time required by Article 33.1.

34 Attendance and speaking at general meetings

34.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

34.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:

34.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting; and 34.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

34.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

34.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

34.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

35 Quorum for general meetings

35.1 No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. Subject to section 318(2) of CA 2006, twenty qualifying persons (as defined in section 318(3) of CA 2006) or 5% of the members whichever is the lower entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted shall be a quorum.

35.2 No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

36 Chairing general meetings

36.1 The chairman appointed pursuant to Article 11.1 will chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

36.2 In the event that more than one person is so appointed then the chairman for any meeting of members shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 11.3.

36.3 If the members have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within thirty minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:

36.3.1 the directors present, or

36.3.2 (if no directors are present), the meeting, must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

37 Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members

37.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings.

37.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not:

37.2.1 members of the Company, or

37.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of members in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

38 Adjournment

38.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it. If, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

38.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

38.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or 38.2.2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

38.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

38.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:
38.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and

38.4.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

38.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than fourteen days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least seven Clear Days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):

38.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company’s general meetings is required to be given, and 38.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

38.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

39 Voting: general

39.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll or a secret ballot is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles. Subject to any rights or restrictions to which members are subject, on a show of hands, every member who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative (unless the representative is himself a member, in which case he shall have more than one vote) shall have one vote.

39.2 No member shall vote at any general meeting unless all monies payable by him to the Company in accordance with Article 29.6 have been paid.

39.3 In the case of joint members the vote of the senior who tenders a vote shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint members; and seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the members stand in the register of members.

39.4 Unless a poll or a secret ballot is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

40 Errors and disputes

40.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

40.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

41 Poll votes and secret ballots

41.1 On a poll or in a secret ballot every member who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative shall have one vote. On a poll or in a secret ballot, a member entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

41.2 A poll or a secret ballot on a resolution may be demanded:
41.2.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or 41.2.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

41.3 A poll or a secret ballot may be demanded by:

41.3.1 the chairman of the meeting;
41.3.2 the directors;
41.3.3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or 41.3.4 a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution.

41.4 A demand for a poll or a secret ballot may be withdrawn if:

41.4.1 the poll or a secret ballot has not yet been taken, and 41.4.2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

A demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

41.5 A poll or a secret ballot demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll or a secret ballot demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll or a secret ballot is demanded. The demand for a poll or a secret ballot shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll or a secret ballot was demanded. If a poll or a secret ballot is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

41.6 No notice need be given of a poll or a secret ballot not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven Clear Days’ notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll or a secret ballot is to be taken.

41.7 The result of the poll or a secret ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll or a secret ballot was demanded.

42 Representation of corporations at meetings

Subject to CA 2006, a company which is a member may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise one or more persons to act as its representative or representatives at a meeting of the company (corporate representative). A director, company secretary or other person authorised for the purpose by the directors may require a corporate representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution of authorisation before permitting him to exercise his powers.

43 Amendments to resolutions

43.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:

43.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and 43.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

43.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

43.2.1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and

43.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

43.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

44 A resolution of the members may be passed as a written resolution in accordance with chapter 2 of part 13 of CA 2006.

PART 5

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

COMMUNICATIONS

45 Means of communication to be used

45.1 Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which any provision of CA 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of CA 2006 to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

45.2 Any notice, document or other information shall be deemed served on or delivered to the intended recipient:

45.2.1 If properly addressed and sent by prepaid United Kingdom first class post to an address in the United Kingdom, forty-eight hours after it was posted;

45.2.2 If properly addressed and delivered by hand, when it was given or left at the appropriate address;

45.2.3 If properly addressed and sent or supplied by electronic means forty-eight hours after the document or information was sent or supplied; and

45.2.4 If sent or supplied by means of a website, when the material is first made available on the website or (if later) when the recipient receives (or is deemed to have received) notice of the fact that the material is available on the website.

For the purposes of this Article 45.2, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

45.3 In proving that any notice, document or other information was properly addressed, it shall be sufficient to show that the notice, document or other information was delivered to an address permitted for the purpose by CA 2006.
Subject to the Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

A director may agree with the Company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than forty-eight hours.

In the case of joint members, all notices or documents shall be given to the joint member whose name stands first in the register in respect of the joint holding. Notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all of the joint members. Where there are joint members, anything which needs to be agreed or specified in relation to any notice, document or other information to be sent or supplied to them can be agreed or specified by any one of the joint members. The agreement or specification of the joint member whose name stands first in the register will be accepted to the exclusion of the agreement or specification of any other joint member (s) whose name(s) stand later in the register.

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

No right to inspect accounts and other records

Except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a member.

DIRECTORS' INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

Indemnity

Subject to Article 47.2, but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a relevant officer is otherwise entitled:

47.1.1 each relevant officer shall be indemnified out of the Company's assets against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by him as a relevant officer:

47.1.1.1 in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of his duties, or in relation to them; and

47.1.1.2 in relation to the Company's activities as trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in section 235(6) of CA 2006), including (in each case) any liability incurred by him in defending any civil or criminal proceedings in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or the proceedings are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty on his part or in connection with any application in which the court grants him, in his capacity as a relevant officer, relief from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company’s affairs; and 47.1.2 the Company may provide any relevant officer with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in connection with any proceedings or application referred to in Article 47.1.1 and otherwise may take any action to enable any such relevant officer to avoid incurring such expenditure.

This Article does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Acts or by any other provision of law.
Insurance

48.1 The directors may decide to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the Company, for the benefit of any relevant officer in respect of any relevant loss.
